Language development and your child

A free, informal workshop for parents and carers

Why is language so important?

How does it usually develop?

What to look out for

How to help

The session will aim to raise awareness and understanding of speech, language and communication needs for school aged children and consider the possible impact on a child's social and emotional wellbeing.

We welcome you to share ideas about what works for you and have a chance to discuss and learn from other parents/carers.

Come and join the SEND Advisory Teachers, NHS Speech and Language Therapists, Family Navigators and your school SENCOs for a coffee and chat:
